

because it is new and not yet up and running. But even with movement of the $300 million to the Global AIDS account, we're still leaving $500 million in the Millennium Challenge Account. Until this program takes off, I believe this is more than sufficient funding.

Mr. Chairman, we can give more money next year to the Millennium Challenge Account when it is ready to do its much needed intended work in Africa—but the 30 million suffering today on that continent cannot wait. Each day another 11,000 people are newly infected. Each day thousands more die.

In Africa, it is estimated that more than 4 million people have a sufficiently advanced stage of HIV/AIDS to warrant anti-retroviral treatment. However, currently only 50,000 are receiving it. This is a statistic that the Global AIDS fund is intended to make better, now.

Lastly, Mr. Chairman, unlike other unfunded mandates, like the No Child Left Behind Act, the President has said that he supports fully funding this program at $3 billion. At the urging of the CBC, AIDS activist groups and the faith-based community, the President devised a plan to address the HIV/AIDS pandemic in Africa. He eventually realized that these diseases know no borders and the U.S. should play a pivotal role in helping to try to stem the tide of destruction they bring. The House Republican Leadership should not break its promise to the Global AIDS fund and the African continent. I urge my compassionate conservative colleagues to put their money where their rhetoric is and show compassion by adopting the Kilpatrick amendment.

ANNOUNCEMENT BY THE CHAIRMAN PRO TEMPORE

The CHAIRMAN pro tempore (Mr. BASS) (during the vote). Members are advised that 2 minutes remain in this vote.

□ 1920

Messrs. PETERSON of Pennsylvania, CALVERT and MEEKS of New York changed their vote from "aye" to "no." So the motion was rejected.

The result of the vote was announced as above recorded.

Mr. KOLBE. Mr. Chairman, I move that the Committee do now rise.

The motion was agreed to.

Accordingly, the Committee rose; and the Speaker pro tempore (Mr. LAHOOD) having assumed the chair, Mr. BASS, Chairman pro tempore of the Committee of the Whole House on the State of the Union, reported that that Committee, having had under consideration the bill (H.R. 2800) making appropriations for foreign operations, export financing, and related programs for the fiscal year ending September 30, 2004, and for other purposes, had come to no resolution thereon.

RECESS

The SPEAKER pro tempore. Pursuant to clause 12(a) of rule I, the Chair declares the House in recess subject to the call of the Chair.

Accordingly (at 7 o'clock and 21 minutes p.m.), the House stood in recess subject to the call of the Chair.

□ 2008

AFTER RECESS

The recess having expired, the House was called to order by the Speaker pro tempore (Mr. HULSHOF) at 8 o'clock and 8 minutes p.m.
